

Believe: The Hour Has Come

John 12:12-36

Ken Caryl Church

November 4, 2018

The _____ Of The Crowds (vv. 12-19)

...when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem...

They refer to Jesus as a _____ king who has the ability to _____ because of His great _____.

This moment _____ what is written in the _____.

As one crowd _____ about Him another crowd _____ and goes to _____ Him.

People move _____ Jesus when they _____ about Jesus.

The _____ Has _____ (vv. 20-28)

The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

An _____ group of people want to _____ Jesus.

Jesus will be _____ through _____ and His death will bear much _____.

To love Jesus above _____ means we _____ Him and _____ Him and experience _____ life through Him.

Jesus knows the _____ and _____ and _____ of this hour.

What This Hour _____ (vv. 29-36)

This voice has not come for My sake, but for your sakes.

_____ is upon the world, meaning it will be _____ seen.

The ruler of the world will be _____, meaning _____.

When Jesus is _____ people from every _____, tongue, people, and _____ will be _____ toward Him.

Jesus communicates _____ in the need for those listening to _____.